Note: In some cases, you may see both a “course” and a “class” listed in your upcoming or completed activities. Other learning activities that may appear include a “topic,” a “session,” or a “curriculum.” If the completion or end/start dates are the same, and if the name of the activities is the same or nearly identical, you are only being given credit for completing one activity. If only one activity type is listed, you are being given credit for completing the class or activity with that name.

For example, in the image below this learner is only registered for one Undocumented Students class:
5.) To view the activities that you are registered for, select the “CURRENT/UPCOMING” from the top of the same page.
